Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that disease should be regarded as a crime. It is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as a crime, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who dwells under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weakness, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its attendant demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, makes the many household cares, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy for women's peculiar weaknesses and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy for women's peculiar weaknesses and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy for women's peculiar weaknesses.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expenses of mailing only. Send to Dr. E. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 5 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Nasal CATARRH
In all its stages.
Ely's Cream Balm
cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane.
It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drug Gists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Struggle as the Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ. Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nervous Strength, or Nervous Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is at fault.

This obscure nerve, called the Vagus, is the cause of all the trouble. It is a nerve that is simply nerves, and must have more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without the real, solid, heart-beat, the stomach and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has the best done so much for weak and ailing hearts. It is the cause of all this painful, palpitating, as if the heart were beating, as if the heart were beating, as if the heart were beating.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strong nerves—strengthen them as needed, with

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

TRAIN HELD UP.

A Missouri Pacific passenger train which left Pittsburg, Kan., at 7:20 yesterday evening was held up by two men in disguise, and Lou Jeff, a negro miner, employed at camp 31, of the Central Coal and Coke Company, was killed because he protested, and W. L. Westlake, of Toledo, Ohio, who, with his wife and two children, had been visiting relatives in Kansas, was shot through the hand by a stray shot that had been fired at the negro.

There were few passengers on the train, and the robbers got about $100 in cash and a few watches and revolvers.

The men were disguised only with false mustaches and goatees.

They boarded the train at Pittsburg and began working the train as it passed the Kansas City Southern Railroad shops. They commenced in the smoking car. One robber walked ahead with a large revolver in either hand, and quietly asked the passengers to "shut out" the man behind, who was closely following. They were not far behind the train auditor, and followed him into the day coach.

When they came to Jeff in the day coach, he at once grasped the idea that it was a hold-up, and after the auditor had passed them. He drew a revolver and shot at the foremost robber, who shot twice at the negro. The first shot went wild and struck Westlake, but the second shot hit the negro in the head and killed him instantly.

The robbers then quietly made the auditor deliver his money, and hurriedly left the train as it entered the yards at Cornett.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the average accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed.

The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitter, the scientific medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Murder Mystery in Norfolk.

A dispatch from Norfolk says that the waters of the southern branch of the Elizabeth river have revealed a murder, but the murderer or murderers are yet unknown.

Percy Arnold, twenty years old; Daisy Arnold, a lad of fourteen, and Clarence Williams, thirty, workmen in a box factory, attempted to cross the southern branch in a skiff on their return from Norfolk to Gilmerton on the night of January 5. Next morning the skiff, upturned, and the bodies of the three were found floating in the river. The river was dragged, but no bodies could be found. It had been generally supposed that the men and boy were drowned.

The bodies of the Arnolds came to the surface yesterday. The skull of the boy is crushed as if by a club and his left arm is broken. Perry's right arm is broken and his body is bruised. The coats of both are missing. The remaining clothing is torn, evidence, the police think, of a struggle, between them and their foes. Nothing of value was found on the bodies of the men, and the police believe that the men and boy were murdered and robbed and their bodies thrown into the creek to conceal the crime. So far no clue has been found.

The body of Williams was recovered several weeks ago. It was buried, and the supposition is that he tried to escape by jumping overboard and was drowned in the icy water before he could swim to a landing.

The trio had been to Norfolk the night they met death to make some Saturday night purchases. Nobody saw them embark, and no cries for help were heard.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! The Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, "He-Lo-Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, tea or coffee can't stand Coffee-drinking, try He-Lo-Coffee. It is a wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying, if safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Suicide of a Lover.

Driven to bay by a crowd of men who pursued him after he had twice shot Edna McKnight, of whom he was enamored, Malcolm H. Pool, aged 21 years, shot and killed himself in Philadelphia yesterday. Pool boarded at the McKnight home until recently, when he was ordered to leave because he insisted upon forcing his attention on Miss McKnight. Her parents objected to the young man obliquely because of their daughter's age. When the girl's father ordered Pool to leave the home he threatened to shoot McKnight and was ejected after a struggle. Pool later went to a church where Miss McKnight was in attendance and tried to induce her to take a walk with him. She refused, but he waited until she started for home and followed. The girl died and Pool fired two shots from a revolver at her, one of which took effect in the arm. The shooting occurred near one of the Rapid Transit Company's barns, and half a hundred motormen and employees gave chase. Pool ran around the barn, with a large crowd in pursuit, and finding himself cornered jumped over the iron fence into the yard of Greenway Public School and sent a bullet into his heart.

Shot Into a Restaurant.

Because the attendants of Stonestreet's restaurant, 1213 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Washington, forced him from the place last night, Frank S. Halsey, aged twenty-five, of Rapid, Va., waited and proceeded to fire into the doorway of the building from the street.

Early in the evening the young man had been put out of the establishment because of the disturbance which he caused, and made his way to his hotel, nearby. Then he procured a revolver, and returning to the restaurant again tried to enter. On being refused, he took his position in the middle of the sidewalk and deliberately fired through one of the glass doors of the building, the bullet taking effect in the ceiling.

The young man then ran up Pennsylvania avenue, but was caught by a policeman and looked up.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray relieves at once and cures is certain. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Chandler Refused.

The United States Supreme Court yesterday denied the application of John Armstrong Chandler, formerly of New York, but now of North Carolina, for a writ prohibiting New York courts or their officers from molesting or arresting him while on a contemplated visit to New York, which Mr. Chandler desires to make for the purpose of prosecuting a suit which he has instituted to secure the restoration of his property now in the hands of Thomas T. Sherman as guardian. The property is estimated to be worth $1,000,000, and was turned over to Mr. Sherman 10 years ago as the result of the proceedings to test Mr. Chandler's sanity.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 5, 1907.

GENERAL BOOTH, of the Salvation Army, who reached New York today, announces his ability to dispose of so-called "tainted" money. He is quite confident that the good purposes to which he and his fellow workers would put the money would purge it. "I've never seen Mr. Carnegie, nor Mr. Rockefeller," said Mr. Booth, in discussing the subject, "nor any of their 'tainted' money," he added, with a twinkle in his eye, "but I am perfectly ready to accept for the army any millions they may feel disposed to give. We will wash it in the tears of widows and orphans and lay it on the altar of benevolent effort." General Booth admitted that $5,000,000 would probably suffice to finance the schemes he has in mind.

OWING TO THE increase in the use of cocaine and similar drugs, the District of Columbia Commissioners have sent to Congress the draft of a bill which provides that it shall be unlawful for any person, other than a registered druggist, physician, dentist or veterinarian, to have in his possession these articles, except upon the prescription of a physician and then only when the same is inclosed in a bottle or other package bearing the name of the physician prescribing the same and name of the person for whom it is prescribed. Drastic measures must be taken to check this growing cocaine habit, or soon it will get beyond control.

THE FIFTY-NINTH Congress yesterday passed into history. It was a dull session, these three months that marked the sitting of the country's lawmakers, although much public business was transacted. Closing scenes were full of incidents, but they were not different from the usual last-day proceedings. Levity and good spirits characterized the closing hours in the House, while members sang patriotic and popular songs and listened to whistling solos by Representative Pulaski, the sweet whistler of Missouri. In the Senate the sadness of parting seemed to temper the spirit of joyfulness that the session's work was done.

NEW YORK STATE has a very large number of savings banks, whose assets have been increasing of late years at a great rate. But it also has 262 building and loan associations whose assets exceed $48,000,000, whose receipts last year were nearly $29,000,000, and whose borrowing members number 22,000. The building and loan associations, however, have attained their largest development in States where savings banks are not so widely diffused as they are in New England and New York.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Everything was quiet about the Capitol today, in marked contrast with the hectic incident to the adjournment of Congress yesterday. The Virginia members of Congress have both gone, or will go home in the next day or two. Senator Daniel was the last Senator to leave his seat yesterday, being detained by a number of pages who wished his autograph. The President today appointed Lieutenant Colonel George W. Goethals a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission. Colonel Goethals left for the Isthmus today where he will relieve Chief Engineer John F. Stevens, resigned, who has been appointed chairman of the Canal Commission, to succeed Theodore P. Shonts, whose resignation took effect yesterday.

There is no prospect of immediate steps by the United States to bring about a settlement of the Central American war now being waged between Honduras and Nicaragua, with Salvador reported as a Honduran ally.

In order to insure the government against the possibility of inspectors showing favoritism to "old friends," Secretary Strauss, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, today issued an order for the removal of all district inspectors from the New York City district to another. These inspectors are to begin at once a re-inspection of passenger-carrying vessels.

Reginald Post, of Bayport, L. I., a friend of the President, and at present Secretary of Porto Rico, is to become governor of that island upon the retirement of Governor Winthrop, selected an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Senator Chauncey M. Depew has not been arrested as a result of the action of the coroner's jury in New York in holding the directors of the New York Central Railroad responsible for the wreck on the Harlem division of that road. Twenty-three lives were lost. Senator Depew is chairman of the board of directors.

The President will appoint E. Dana Dand, of California, Deputy Commissioner of Corporations to succeed Herbert Knox Smith, who became Commissioner today upon the elevation of James B. Garfield to the Cabinet. Archie Roosevelt, the President's third son, who is recovering from an attack of diphtheria, was declared to be out of danger this morning by Dr. Rixey, the attending physician. Archie passed a fine night, said Dr. Rixey, "and is doing just as well as could possibly be hoped for. He seems now to be out of danger."

James B. Garfield, of Ohio, hitherto Commissioner of Corporations, today succeeded E. Dana Dand as Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The new secretary is the "kid" of the Cabinet.

Governor Swanson has reprieved Charles Good, who was to be hanged in Luray next Friday for the murder of Miss Fannie Strop, until March 22.

Mrs. Ella Pratt, widow of Ferdinand S. Pratt, died yesterday at her home, near Fletcher's Chapel, King George county, of consumption, aged 67 years.

Mrs. Mildred A. Daniel, widow of J. M. Daniel, of Orange county, died at her home, near Nason's, aged seventy-six years. She is survived by eleven children.

Rev. Dr. Barr, rector of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk, has received a call to the rectory of St. Paul's, Lynchburg. He announces he does not think he will leave Norfolk.

George Asby, a farmer and real estate owner of Loudoun county, residing near Hillsboro, has lost within the last few days five horses, valued at $200 each, from peritonitis, induced by ground glass which an unknown person slipped on their feed out of ill will toward the owner.

Daniel Bowers, the demented man who suddenly appeared in the Lutheran church in Winchester during the morning services Sunday and created consternation by his strange actions, attempted to commit suicide by building a fire under his clothing in his cell at the police station there yesterday.

Multi-Millionaires Defendants.—New York, March 5.—Thirteen multi-millionaires, rated as common defendants, notwithstanding the fact that they constitute the Board of Directors of the New York Central Railroad and wield a power in the affairs of the country almost equal to that of the President and his cabinet, must appear in court today to answer the wreck of the Brewster express on the night of February 16th, when twenty-three lives were lost. A remarkable feature of the inquest, which came to light today, is a report that Coroner Schwannke, to whose energy the fixing of the blame is largely responsible, has been forced out of his position as manager of the excise department of the American Surety Company, a position paying $5,000 a year. Chauncey M. Depew and James Stillman, directors of the New York Central, are also directors of the American Surety Company, and it is said the coroner's refusal to let up on the rigid investigation of the Central is at least strikingly coincidental with his dismissal from the Surety Company.

New Navy for Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—Within the next four years Russia will have a naval squadron in the far East, including two steam turbine battleships of 21,800 tons displacement, with a speed of 21 knots, and with an armament of ten 12-inch guns each. The Russian officials will recommend to the czar that the squadron be built in the United States, declaring that the shipbuilding yards of the United States will turn out the ships in much quicker time. The estimates for the navy for 1907 have been reduced from $52,000,000 to $40,000,000.

Accident to a Train.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 5.—Ten persons were seriously injured, one possibly fatally, and hundreds of passengers had a narrow escape from a serious disaster, when the New York Central train No. 6 leaving Cleveland at 6 o'clock last evening, was wrecked early today at Tivoli, 25 miles north of here. A defective coupling, which allowed the train to cut, separating the sleepers and derailed the engine and baggage car, caused the wreck, the second section of the train being derailed and only prevented from going into the Hudson river by a string of freight cars on a siding.

Steamer Founding to Pieces.

Tokio, March 5.—All efforts to free the steamship Dakota, of the Great Northern line, which struck a rock in the Bay of Tokio, Sunday evening, have been unsuccessful and the vessel is rapidly pounding to pieces on the rocks. The heavy seas make it impossible for vessels sent to assist her to get near the Dakota. The steamer is hourly being coming more and more submerged. When the vessel was last seen, it had been ordered to the scene of the wreck and are standing by to render any assistance possible.

Plead Guilty.

New York, Mar. 5.—A plea of guilty of the charge of sending obscene matter through the mails—so called "Red Light Personal Column"—was entered in the United States Circuit Court by Wm. Rand, counsel for the New York Herald Company. The plea was entered on behalf of James Gordon Bennett, owner of the Herald, and Manley M. Gillam, advertising manager of the paper. Sentence will be imposed on April 2. The maximum fine under the counts of the indictment is $40,000.

Strike of Tralmen.

Bethlehem, Pa., March 5.—With the exception of mail trains all traffic on the Lehigh and New England R. R. is held up as the result of a strike today by tralmen. Recently the road took one brakeman from each crew. The trainmen demanded that these men be reinstated and sought a ten hour instead of a twelve-hour day. Refusal of their demands brought on today a strike. Though hundreds of men are out no violence has been reported so far.

Terrific Explosion.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Mar. 5.—Eleven hundred pounds of dynamite went up here today in the explosion of one of the big magazines of the Richards colliery of the Susquehanna Coal Company. Twenty-seven workmen were seriously injured, many of them believed fatally, and a core of others slightly hurt. The big breaker was partially destroyed and two engines blown down.

The coroner's jury which has been holding an inquest into the wreck of the Brewster express on the Harlem division of the New York Central on Saturday, February 16, in which twenty-three lives were lost, returned a verdict last night holding the railroad company entirely responsible for the disaster.

News of the Day.

John F. Stevens, chief engineer of the Isthmian Canal Commission, has been appointed chairman of the commission.

The Supreme Court decided yesterday that a State may prohibit the placing of a representation of the American flag on a bottle of beer.

It is intimated that Mr. John D. Rockefeller will make another gift even greater perhaps than the $32,000,000 for education.

The government printing commission is said to have cleaned up 10,000 tons of public documents and saved $2,000,000 on printing bills.

President Roosevelt, according to reports, will checkmate the Senate by withholding 100,000,000 acres of timber lands from registry.

The rector of the wealthy St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, in New York, has served notice on the negro parishioners that they are not wanted.

The Great Northern steamer Dakota, which ran aground in Tokio, is reported to be sinking; the passengers were landed at Mojima lighthouse, and lost their luggage.

It is said in London that the resignation of Governor Sweetenham, of Jamaica, has become an accomplished fact, and he will leave that island as soon as his affairs can be arranged.

A shortage of $185,000 in the Imperial Bank of Germany is disclosed, being authorized to be made from the government printers by the foreman, who subsequently committed suicide.

In all Maine cities municipal elections were held yesterday. Republicans made gains in four, the democrats in four, and in the remaining five there was practically no change from the vote of last year.

The American flag that inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner" is in the possession of Mr. Eben Appleton, of New York, a grandson of Major Armstrong, the defender of Fort Mifflin on that occasion.

General Booth, head of the Salvation Army, will arrive in New York last week on his way to Japan and China. He will spend two weeks in New York and will then proceed to Canada, where he will be the guest of the governor general, Earl Grey.

Seventeen million acres of forest lands have been added to the forest reserves of the United States by proclamations issued by President Roosevelt, made public yesterday. Thirty-two forest reservations are created or increased in area by these proclamations.

Bishop and Mrs. Alphons Waters celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Baltimore last night. Today they will leave for a trip around the world. More than 200 friends called upon them to congratulate them upon the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding.

It is said that two-thirds of the entire Irish race are in the United States, and that there are more Irish in Boston than in any other city in the world. South Carolina has the largest Irish population of any State in the Union. Nearly half of the continental troops under Washington were of Irish descent.

That 91 per cent. of the dairies supplying milk to the city of Washington are in a poor sanitary condition is the statement made by William Hart Drexler, assistant dairyman of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture, in a communication to the North Washington Citizens' Association.

At Omaha, Neb., yesterday Judge Reddick awarded to Charles C. Bassett, of Washington, the custody of his son Chester. The remaining four children of the youngest of whom was born eleven months after the separation of Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were given to Mrs. Bassett. This action marks the end of the Bassett divorce case.

Common Councilman William A. Martin, alleged to be treasurer of the "graft combine," which, it is said, controls both branches of the city council of Pittsburgh, Pa., was yesterday sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for soliciting bribes of $60,000 and $70,000 from President C. C. Cameron, of the Pittsburgh and Tube City Railroad.

One of the last official acts of George Bruce Cortelyou, who became Secretary of the Treasury yesterday, as Postmaster General, was to issue the following order, which will deprive the nation of about $6,000,000 a year. "That whenever the weight of mail is taken on railroad routes, the whole number of days the mails are weighed shall be used as a divisor for obtaining the average weight per day."

The U. S. Supreme Court yesterday entered upon the consideration on printed briefs of the case of Percy vs. Strahan, which involves the question as to whether the sale of Pines in American or Cuban territory. The case has been pending in the court for several years and heads the docket. The agreement of counsel to submit the case without oral argument makes it possible for the court to give it consideration during the present term.

The cross-examination yesterday of Dr. Britton D. Evans and Dr. Charles Wagner by District Attorney Jerome indicates that the prosecution will argue that Thaw was sane the night the Pittsburgh shot Sanford White, and that the murder was premeditated. The district attorney devoted the day to an effort to make the jury believe that the prisoner was of sound mind the night he shot White. Thaw told Jerome that he cannot send Thaw to the asylum on the insanity plea he will argue that the Pittsburgher committed a carefully and methodically arranged murder.

Declaration that the money stolen from the Chicago Sub-treasury may reach $500,000, and that the federal officials are just as much at sea concerning the amount as they are in regard to the persons guilty of the gigantic robbery, made yesterday by a government spokesman.

This startling assertion was made shortly after the expert money counters arrived from Washington and began their labors. The men found conditions that led to the disclosures. Two government officials said there were grave fears that the $175,000 heretofore believed to have been stolen was only a fraction of the amount taken.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, and all the ailments of the little ones. It's the only Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

By His Mother and Sister.—A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A heart that was so true and kind. No more we shall be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled. The boon His love has given. And though his body slumbers here The soul is safe in heaven. Does not that comfort give?

THE STROTHERS TRIAL.

Hilma of Philip Strother, one of the defendants in the Bywaters' homicide case, caused a postponement of the trial this morning.

Much to the surprise of the spectators in court yesterday neither session of the trial was fraught with any sensations. The important points which the attorneys for the prosecution hoped to bring out did not materialize, and before the noon recess was taken Mr. Keith announced that the State would rest its case.

First of all, the acting prosecuting attorney was unable to produce Dr. J. W. DeJarnette, of the Western Hospital by whom he had determined to contradict some of the statements upon the stand Saturday by Dr. Charles Clark, of Washington, and whose testimony was wholly in favor of the insanity plea raised by the defendants. Dr. DeJarnette had been summoned as a witness for the State, but he notified Mr. Keith at the last minute that his duties would not permit his leaving the institution.

With the exception of an admission while upon the stand that he testified before the coroner's jury that the window of Viola Bywaters' room was down at the time of the shooting, the evidence of E. L. Gaines, brother-in-law of the Strother boys and an eye-witness to the shooting, who was considered a star witness for the commonwealth, failed to give additional facts bearing upon the status of the relations of the prisoners. He made the poorest witness of any who have yet been summoned to give testimony and showed a preceptible nervousness while facing the attorneys for the prosecution, but, by taking plenty of time in which to make replies to questions propounded to him, he prevented little from being drawn out of him that would have a detrimental effect on the case of the defendants.

After working continually for four hours last night in his apartment at the Waverly Hotel, Judge Harrison completed the instructions which are to go to the jury today. There are 29 in all, and cover eight typewritten pages.

In the first part of the instructions Judge Harrison defines the various classes of homicide, and gives in brief the statutes covering each crime, as well as the penalty prescribed therefor.

In summing up the rules by which the jury must be governed in reaching a verdict, Judge Harrison says: "If the jury believe from the evidence that in his state of mind at the time of the killing the accused might reasonably infer from the acts and conduct of the deceased immediately preceding the killing that he intended to desert his wife and children, and to do so, and that such efforts would naturally and reasonably incite in his mind great anger and passion, under all the facts and circumstances of this case, such as to control his reason and will, and that under the influence of such passion and anger, and in pursuance of any preconceived purpose, he killed the deceased, then he is guilty of manslaughter, and the jury should so find."

Hilma's New Drama.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—The opening today of the new Drama, Hilma's second parliament, was attended with much excitement. Outside the Taurida Palace, where the Drama sits, there were tumultuous popular demonstrations, probably indicative of the stormy future of the assembly.

The public was barred from admission to the place by cordons of troops. The people, however, gathered by the thousands and near the entrance for the deputies and greeted their favorite men who had proved themselves loyal to the people's interests.

The warmest greetings were given to the socialists. Whenever one would appear there would be loud cries from the people for "amnesty" and "freedom."

Excited citizens gathered outside the Taurida Palace for the opening of the Drama engaged in such a wild demonstration that a cavalry charge was ordered to clear the streets about the palace. Many persons were ridden down and badly injured.

No party has a majority and some of the parties are shaded into each other that it is impossible to enumerate their actual voting strength.

It is expected, however, that the national, radical, and socialist will possess a small majority on all important matters of legislation.

Premier Stolypin can rely absolutely on the firm support of the czar if a conflict with the Drama arises over obstruction tactics. Nicholas will dissolve the Drama as he has the right to do so, and submit to dictation. He is known to have told Premier Stolypin: "I am ready to dissolve three Dumas rather than abandon the cabinet."

Promptly at noon the Drama was formally opened. Premier Stolypin and all members of his cabinet were present. Divine service was held by the Metropolitan Antonius, and Bishops Plato and Eulogius, both of whom are members of the Drama.

After this ceremony Antonius delivered a speech hoping the new assembly will act for the good of the country, which is now in the throes of anarchy. He concluded with a prayer that God will direct the deputies in their work and appealed for peace and harmony.

M. Golovin, a member of the liberal party, was then chosen president of the Drama.

M. Golunoff, vice president of the council of the empire, read the czar's decree convoking the Drama and was received with the wildest cheering from about 100 deputies, who jumped to their feet in a remarkable demonstration of loyalty to the imperial government. For ten minutes their shouts of "Long live the czar" blocked all proceedings.

In the meantime, the rest of the deputies present, about 800 in number, sat in silent silence.

When the demonstration over the czar's decree had subsided President Golovin made his speech of acceptance. It was conservative expressing the hope that the Drama would try to work in harmony with the czar. At 4 o'clock the session adjourned.

The general impression was that the majority of the deputies are honestly desirous of avoiding going to extremes and hope to secure such useful legislation.

There was, however, combined excitement in the streets, many persons waving flags and singing the "Marseillaise."

The Thaw Trial.

New York, March 5.—Dr. Wagner was called as the first witness in the Thaw trial this morning.

Jerome in beginning his examination read part of Dr. Wagner's testimony yesterday in which he cited from one of the District Attorney's own books of reference the case of a woman who suffered a "brain storm," who became violent, and who was kept in a hospital for several months.

Macabees' Banquet.

As had been anticipated, the banquet given by the Macabees, last night at the Elkhorn Hotel was one of the most enjoyable of the season. The occasion was the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the order. The company was genial, the menu lavish and inviting and the speeches interesting and spirited. Covers had been laid for about 75.

The members of the ten visitors from Washington and invited guests from this city proceeded to the banquet hall about 9 o'clock. Messrs. Biley and Spinks had everything in preparation. The tables were tastefully spread and decorated and the menu embraced all seasonable edibles.

Mr. C. A. Bladen, a past officer of the ten, presided and acted as toastmaster. The company was soon seated and the discussion of the collation proceeded. Courses followed course for about an hour, and shortly before ten o'clock the toastmaster called the assemblage to order and delivered some appropriate remarks. He also made some exhibits of the efforts of the ten, which were encouraging and showed the prosperous condition of the organization. Among other things the speaker referred to the fact that out of a membership of 187 no deaths had occurred in the ranks of the Macabees during the ten years of their existence in Alexandria.

Mr. Bladen was followed by Mr. George K. Bender, who formally welcomed the visitors and invited guests.

Messrs. Frank Hannan, Ohas. J. Gates and W. J. Worrell, all of Mount Vernon, delivered interesting addresses. Their remarks were interspersed with stories which were greatly enjoyed.

O. W. Hammond, Colonel of the United States Army, delivered a short but appropriate speech, in which he urged the Alexandria Macabees to organize a uniformed rank of the order.

Toward the close of the proceedings the toastmaster again spoke, and in the course of his remarks counselled brotherly love and union in all the purposes of the order.

The company dispersed at 11:30 o'clock. The banquet was enlivened at intervals by fine music rendered by the Alexandria Ideal Musical Club—Messrs. W. W. Wellington, J. S. Wellington, B. A. Lawson, M. K. Hammill, Harvey Drown, A. A. Lucas and Philip Tenneson.

The Macabees is a fraternal insurance organization, and embraces among its members many representative and prominent Alexandrians. The present officers of Alexandria ten are: Past Commander, M. A. Brenner; Conductor, Geo. W. Zacker; Lieutenant Conductor, Thos. M. Jones; Sergeant, J. G. Cockey; Master of Arms, M. E. Miller; First Guard, Dr. R. L. Wilkins; Second Guard, Irvin Brawner; Picket, C. R. Actor; Sentinel, Samuel Edwards.

Forfeited His Collateral.

Robert Wallace, who was arrested yesterday for contempt of court, was released upon leaving $25 collateral. As was stated in this Gazette, Wallace appeared at the station house at an early hour last Sunday morning and made complaint against a young man who he alleged was conducting a gambling house in an upper room of a building on the north side of King street, near Pitt. When the police reached the place they found the man against whom complaint had been made and five other young men, all of whom were placed under arrest. Wallace alleged that he had on certain occasions lost $1,400 in the place. When the case was called in the Police Court yesterday morning Wallace was among the missing. The trial of the case was postponed and a warrant issued for the arrest of the complainant. He was later taken in custody and left $25 for his appearance this morning. Four of the accused were present when the court convened, but Wallace was again absent and forfeited his collateral, as did also the two others who had been charged with gambling. Justice Caton then proceeded to examine the case against the man charged with conducting a gambling house and that against the three who were suspected of gambling. No evidence was elicited upon which a conviction could be based, but Justice Caton said there was enough to excite suspicion that the parties who had been arrested had gathered for the purpose of participating in gambling. He warned all concerned, and suggested to the proprietor of the place that he deliver up the keys to the owner of the building, and avoid further trouble.

T. P. A.

As stated in yesterday's Gazette the State board of directors of the Travelers' Protective Association held its bi-monthly session Saturday night at the residence of Col. John S. Harwood in Richmond. The board changed the place of meeting of the State convention from Norfolk to Alexandria, and set the date of the convention for May 10th and 11th. The report of the secretary showed the fourteen posts in the State to be in fine condition, and announced forty-one new members for February. The report of the Alexandria post was very gratifying, showing an increase of seventeen members during the past month. The membership in the State is nearly two thousand, which will give them a representation of 200 delegates at the convention in Alexandria and twenty-two representatives at the national convention in Norfolk. Among those present was Mr. J. Y. Williams.

Approaching Fishing Season.

The receipts of fresh fish are increasing, and the benches in the market this morning were stocked with several varieties. Shad are more plentiful, but they are still high. Fine roe sell at $1 each and melt at 50 cents. Herring bring 40 cents a dozen, rockfish 20 cents a pound, and black bass and perch 15 cents. An abundance of lake fish is also received in this city. The shad and herring offered so far this year have come from the south.

Mission at St. Mary's Church.

Last evening St. Mary's Church was crowded with people of all denominations anxious to listen to the two Catholic priests who had announced a week's mission to explain and defend the teachings of their old historic church. After a few remarks on the uncontroverted nature of their lectures and the question of Father T. E. Waters answered the questions, and Father A. J. Van Ingelgen gave the instruction, taking for his subject, "The Divinity of Christ." Among other things he said: "The Divinity of Christ is the foundation of the Christian religion. To Him universal homage is paid, not only as to a great man, but as to the infinite God. There are indeed many who ignore Him, a few who publicly resist his claim to be the Deity; but the vast multitude of civilized humanity bow down to adore Him. 'My Lord and my God,' St. Thomas' act of tardy but perfect faith, is the cry of the human race, so far as it has become enlightened. Nor is this a momentary sentiment; it is the settled conviction of ages. * * * It is all the more peaceful in its supremacy on account of the patient and matured meditation of humanity's best intelligence during nearly a score of centuries. * * * I speak for every one of you, when I proclaim Jesus Christ the only guide of my intelligence, the king of my affections, the master of my actions. May His blessed grace make the love of Him and of His truth the one absorbing passion of my soul!"

Death of Miss Stansbury.

Miss Edith Augusta Stansbury, who for the past three weeks has been seriously ill at the home of her father, Mr. Daniel R. Stansbury, on north Columbus street, died this morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Stansbury was at first stricken with grip; this was followed by cerebral-spinal meningitis, from which her death resulted. Her condition at first caused great anxiety among her relatives and friends. After many days of suffering, during which her condition grew worse, it became evident that her death was inevitable. She was the daughter of Mr. Daniel R. Stansbury and the late Monnie E. Stansbury. She was in her twenty-fourth year, and is survived by her father, a sister and two brothers. Miss Stansbury was very popular among a large circle of friends who will mourn her death and who join the family in the sorrow of their bereavement. She was a consistent and faithful worker among the organizations of the Second Presbyterian Church, where the influence of her womanly qualities will be missed. The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 11 o'clock from the residence, 207 north Columbus street. The services will be conducted by Rev. Joseph B. Sevier. The pallbearers will be Messrs. Orlando H. Kirk, David N. Hulsbush, Leo Harlow, Maurice Williams, Rha Atkinson, and J. Randall Caton, Jr.

Family Theatre.

The attractions this week at the Family Theatre are undoubtedly the best that have yet been produced. Tom Moore was heartily applauded for the excellent rendition of two pretty illustrated songs. One of the featured subjects of the motion picture, "The Living Mattress," is presented for laughing purposes only. The opening picture shows men and women at work killing and covering mattresses. They retire for lunch and in the meantime an intoxicated tramp invades the premises and seeks a quiet nap within the folds of the inviting mattress. At this juncture the employee return to work and hasten to sew the mattress with the sleeping tramp inside. When they complete the job the mattress is thrown on the pile, the fall wakes the tramp, and the subject concludes with a screamingly funny chase. Another picture of a laughingly comic nature is "The Winter Straw Ride," showing the trials and tribulations of a merry party who start out for a jolly good time and get an experience that cause a laugh from start to finish. The other feature subjects are above the average.

Confederate Veterans.

The R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, held a regular monthly meeting at their hall last night. A communication from Maj. Gen. Smith Bolling, commander of the Virginia Division, U. S. V., in reference to the grand reunion to be held in Richmond, May 30 to June 8, was received and read. Also one from Capt. J. Thompson Brown, chairman of committee on parade, on the occasion of the reunion, was read and laid over for future action. Two new members were elected, J. W. Garner, Hart's Battery, Hampton Legion, and Geo. J. Head, 23rd Virginia Cavalry. Mr. C. S. T. Viot, W. A. Smoot and P. F. Gorman were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions on the death of Comrade R. A. Veitch. The thanks of the camp were tendered to the Woman's Auxiliary for the manner in which the late banquet was arranged and served. Other business of a private nature was transacted. The annual election of officers will be held at the April meeting.

Fire.

The alarm of fire about five o'clock yesterday afternoon was caused by the discovery of a blaze at the residence of Mr. M. R. O'Sullivan, 225 south Pitt street. The fire started in the second-story front room, which was occupied by Mr. O'Sullivan's brother, Mr. William Whitcomb, who is confined to the house by sickness. When discovered the fire had gained considerable headway, having started apparently in a couch. The flames soon set fire to the curtains in the room and were making dangerous headway when the fire department reached the scene, but by prompt action the flames were quickly subdued, not, however, before considerable damage had been done to the room and the furniture therein. The fire is supposed to have been caused either by a spark from a pipe Mr. Whitcomb was smoking, or from a match which he had thrown on the floor, supposing it to have been extinguished.

"Regular as the Sun"

is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated by Dr. King's New Life Pills, guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugists, 25c.

Fishes get quick relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Remember it's made solely for rheumatism, works with certainty and satisfaction. Itching, painful, protruding, or blind fish disappear like magic by its use. Try it and see! For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugists.

Mass Meeting For Men.

On next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Second Presbyterian Church there will be held a mass meeting for men, at which time Hon. John Barrett, the Director of the International Bureau of American Republics, and formerly United States Minister to Panama, Colombia, and Argentina, will make a stirring address on the timely subject, "The New South America and its relations with the United States." Mr. Barrett comes by invitation of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of this city, under whose direction the meeting will be held. An attractive musical programme has been arranged. The privilege of hearing this celebrated speaker, who has addressed some of the largest men's clubs of this country, is offered to every man of Alexandria.

Judgeship Candidates.

Now that Judge Nicol has forwarded his resignation to the Governor the next thing to be expected is the appointment of his successor. The only three names so far mentioned in connection with the position are those of Mr. John M. Johnson, of this city, former Judge J. M. Love and Mr. Walter T. Oliver, of Fairfax. It is thought by many that Governor Swanson can hardly do otherwise than appoint Mr. Johnson, because of the backing that gentleman has throughout the district.

Basketball.

The Alexandria Athletic Association basketball team will play a double-header at their hall tomorrow night having as their opponents the Fendall Oudet's team which claims the championship of Washington and the Peaks Chapel of Georgetown.

The Alexandria Athletic Association at their regular weekly meeting decided to put a baseball team in the field this spring and elected Arthur M. Gray manager.

Personal.

Mrs. J. J. Fay, of Baltimore, is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strauss.

Rev. Mr. Mayo will preach in St. Paul's Church tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bendheim left today for New York.

Mrs. Emma Garvey last night presented her husband, Mr. James Garvey, with a little girl weighing ten pounds.

Wedding.

On Saturday evening last William N. Crump, who went to Rockville, Md., early on that day and made application for a marriage license to be issued to him and Miss Susanna Grimes, both of Alexandria, but was refused on account of his age of nineteen years, returned with the necessary consent of his mother, Mrs. Etta Padgett, and after obtaining the license was married before leaving town.

Upper King Street.

Mayor Paff has received a letter from Mr. Jos. Corbin, superintendent of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, in which he suggests a conference between the city officials, those of the county and representatives of the Washington-Southern and electric railways for the purpose of taking steps toward the paving of upper King street with vitrified brick.

Funeral.

The remains of the late John T. Lloyd, who died in Washington on Sunday last, were brought to this city yesterday afternoon and taken to the residence of his daughter, 205 Queen street. The funeral took place this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Buile. The deceased was eighty-three years of age.

Cameron Club.

Miss Richards will give the last of this winter's series of lectures on current topics tomorrow evening before the Cameron Club at Lee Camp Hall. In April she will give an illustrated lecture from Paris to Oberammergau, which, by those who have seen it, is considered very fine.

Use a little KODOL after your meals and it will be found to afford a prompt and efficient relief. KODOL nearly approximates the digestive fluids. It digests what you eat. It is sold on a guarantee on the bottle. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 K'ag street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Snow fell again this morning, but it melted as soon as it reached the ground. Mr. Wm. H. Wheatley has reopened his ferry line between this city and Maryland.

The schooner A. J. Lawson, from the lower river, with lumber to Smoot & Co., has arrived.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Ralph W. Orouch, of Portsmouth, and Nellie B. Bowers, of Berryville, and to William H. Sanders and Katie A. Owen, of Alexandria.

A wagon belonging to Mr. F. J. Pollard was overturned on Henry street, between King and Prince, yesterday afternoon. The accident was caused by one of the wheels becoming wedged between the railroad track and the board along side the same.

Mrs. Hannah Hough, widow of John Hough, died at her home at Lincoln, Fairfax county, last night. The deceased was 87 years old. Her remains will be forwarded to Waterford, Loudoun county, by Mr. B. Wheatley, where they will be interred.

A colored woman named Whitley, living in the extreme southwestern section of the city, while walking across the floor at her home Sunday morning last with a pan of ashes in her hands tripped in the carpet, fell and broke one of her legs. She was attended by Dr. Hopkins.

Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 5, 1907.

A Policeman's Story.

When Captain W. E. Weber was a patrolman a clothing store upon his beat was robbed one night. The thief had taken off his own old clothes and left them in the store. He had put on a new suit and worn it away. The old suit was that of a boy about fifteen years old.

Weber gathered up the clothes and took them to the old fire patrol house at Seventh and Washington streets. He put them upon the floor and, turning the hose on them, drenched them with water. Then he went down to the junction, where at that time the newsboys congregated in great numbers. He gathered a dozen of them around him.

"Boys," he said, "the police found some clothes down on the river bank this morning. It looks like a boy had been drowned. I want all of you to come up to the fire station and look at the clothes. Maybe you can tell me who they belonged to."

No sooner had the "newsies" gathered around the pile of water soaked clothes than one little fellow spoke up:
"Them's Nitty Smith's. I seen him wearin' them red galluses, an' he sewed that patch on the knee there hisself."

Other boys corroborated this story.
In less than an hour the officer had corralled Nitty and made him confess to the robbery.—Kansas City Star.

Poisoned With Food.

If one were to say that thousands of people regularly and almost systematically poison themselves with food, it would strike the average layman as extraneous. The opinion of the layman, however, cuts no figure when compared with the scientific deductions of one who has carefully observed the facts. How many people are there who select their food with care, eat it at the right time and in the proper way to secure good digestion and subsequent absorption of just the physiologically correct amount of nutriment required to repair the waste incurred by the duties of everyday life? There are very few. Some starve themselves, but the great majority go to the other extreme and constantly overeat. One eats too much at regular mealtimes, while another eats less, but feeds more frequently. In either case the digestive apparatus is overtaxed.—A Physician in New York World.

A Robust Ghost.

John Leech and a member of the Millis family once stayed a night at Cowdray hall. In England, where many ghosts being present, the two friends had no alternative but to accept rooms in an isolated wing supposed to be haunted. In the middle of the night Millis awoke, believing that some ghost was shaking him violently by the shoulder. This was supposed to be the favorite device of the ghost. He rushed into a corridor and found Leech sitting there trembling and declaring that he would not for the world go back to his room. They spent the remainder of the night in the corridor, but in the morning said nothing of their experiences. In the afternoon there arrived an evening paper telling of a violent earthquake in the locality.
The earthquake was what the two visitors believed to be their ghost.

Valuable Pebbles.

Between the northern point of Long Island and Watch Hill lies a row of little islands, two of which, Plum Island and Goose Island, possess a peculiar form of mineral wealth. It consists in heaps of richly colored quartz pebbles, showing red, yellow, purple and other hues, which are locally called agate. They are used in making stained glass windows, and there is a sufficient demand for them in New York to keep the owners of one or two sloops employed in gathering them from the beaches, where the waves continually roll and polish them, bringing out the beauty of their colors.

El Dorado.

The modern meaning of El Dorado may be traced as follows: One of El Dorado's men said that he had discovered a land of boundless wealth between the Orinoco and the Amazon.
This country was named El Dorado,
and many adventures, among them
Sir Walter Raleigh, endeavored to find it; hence the name has come to mean a golden country, of the mind, a fabulous land of fabulous wealth, much as Cockaigne, a fancied land of luxury and idleness.—New York American.
